Masahiro is a junior high school student in Tokyo. He likes English and he wants to live in a foreign country in the future. His school has an English summer camp in Australia. This year, he joined the camp. 30 students went to Australia this summer. On the first day, they had a welcome party. Masahiro tried to talk to the Australian students, but he couldn't speak English very well. At first, he was shy. Then, a student, Mike, said, "Don't worry. You will be able to speak English soon!" Mike was very kind to him.

The next day, Masahiro and Mike went to *a wildlife sanctuary. He held a koala in his arms. It was very cute. On the last day in Australia, Mike and his family had a BBQ for Masahiro. It was very delicious. Masahiro and Mike talked a lot because it was the last day. Then, Mike said, "Masahiro, your English is getting better. I'm really proud of you!"

Masahiro enjoyed staying in Australia and making friends with the Australian students. He thought, "I want to live in Australia in the future!"
