During my summer vacation, I went to Hokkaido with my family. I didn't go on a family trip for the last three years so I was very excited.

On the first day, we went to Sapporo by plane early in the morning. After we arrived there, we went to Niseko by car. It took about three hours from New Chitose Airport. In Niseko, we tried river rafting. I saw many instructors from foreign countries, for example, the USA, Nepal and Australia. Our instructor for river rafting was from Australia. His name was Justin. He came to Japan to be an instructor because he had some experience in his country. We went down a river on a boat and enjoyed the beautiful nature around us.

On the second day, we went to Furano to see a farm and a famous stone house. The stone house was used in a TV drama. In the evening, we had dinner at a sushi restaurant. I heard sushi in Hokkaido is very big. It was true!

On the third day, we went to Northern Horse Park to do some activities. I tried horseback riding for the first time. When I was riding the horse, I was a little scared but my horse was so nice and walked slowly when I pulled the rope. It was a great experience for me.
